

JEWISH STUDIES SEMINAR SERIES

Latinx Jews in South Florida: Untangling Sub-Ethnic Identities among Sephardic Latinx Immigrants

Wednesday, March 6th
10:00 - 11:15 AM EST
Callaway N204

Are Sephardic Latinx Jews redefining what it means to be Jewish in South Florida? The Sephardic tent shul, the Sephardic Minyan at the recently inaugurated Aventura Chabad Center and the flourishing Sephardic study groups held in local kosher eateries seem to point in this direction. In this seminar, we will discuss the ways that Sephardic Jews are disrupting the Ashkenormative narrative of American Jewry in South Florida by tracing the roots of Sephardic communities in Latin America and the construction of new Latinx Sephardic communities in the United States.

Please contact Prof. Hazel Gold, 2024 Tenenbaum Committee Chair, with any questions (hgold@emory.edu)

This TIJS Seminar is intended primarily for Emory faculty and students.

Please register at:
<https://tinyurl.com/tijsseminar>

Dr. Limonic is an Associate Professor and Chair of the Sociology Department at SUNY-Old Westbury. Her book, Kugel and Frijoles: Latino Jews in the United States (Wayne State University Press, 2019), explores issues of ethnicity, race, class and religious community building among Latino Jewish immigrants in Boston, New York, Miami and Southern California.

THE TAM INSTITUTE FOR JEWISH STUDIES