WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 2023 | 4- 6PM EST
ACKERMAN HALL, CARLOS MUSEUM 3RD FLOOR

Welcome
Walter S. Melion, Director, Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry

Panel 1
Margaret Greene - Two Canadian Collectors of Ancient Egyptian Art in the 19th Century and Their Relationship to Coffins in the Michael C. Carlos Museum *
Gabriele Kim - Women, Leadership and Education: Southern Methodist, Chinese, and Korean Women in the Missionary Enterprise (1880-1920) *
Jeffrey Rosen - On Some Motifs in Virginia Woolf **

Panel 2
Abigayle Mazzocco - GlossiSHARE: How a Company Went from Selling Blush to Being the Cool-Girl’s Best Friend *
Adeline Yang - Global Anglophone-centrism: A Multiculturalist and Decolonial Critique of English Dominance in Cosmopolitanism *

Panel 3
Iris Chen - Towards Asian/American Time Being Ecologies: Naturecultural Migration/Invasion within A Tale for the Time Being *
Becca Cohen - Computational Linguistics of Female Agency in Early Modern Dramas *
Edina Hartstein - Imperial Feminism, Humanitarianism and Shaping Global Trafficking **

Panel 4
Hunter Akridge - Contesting the Cultural Politics of Care: How Equitable Digital Care Platforms Reimagine the Future of Work *
Anikka Jordan - Illness & Belonging in the American South: A Case Study of Flannery O’Connor & Carson McCullers *
Danielle Mangabat - Confronting Colonial Legacies: Imagining a Decolonial Future in the Philippines through Reproductive Health **

*Fox Center Undergraduate Humanities Honors Fellows
Halle Institute/Fox Center Undergraduate Humanities Honors Fellows

FOR MORE INFORMATION,
PLEASE CONTACT THE FOX CENTER AT FCHI.EMORY.EDU OR 404.727.6424