

Europe and Beyond

Spring 2021 Interdisciplinary Research Seminars

The Bill and Carol Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry (FCHI)

The principal goal of Europe and Beyond is to foster research-centered, cross-disciplinary intellectual community among faculty and graduate students at Emory University and Georgia State University working on Europe and Europe-related topics. The presenters constitute the seminar's core group; they attend all the sessions and participate in discussion of each other's projects.

Fall Schedule and Presenters:

Feb. 1:	Peter Höyng Emory University	"Marilyn: A Novel of Passing from 1928: An Austrian Perspective on Jim Crow America"
	Kathryn Kozaitis Georgia State University	"Crisis as Liminality: Spatiotemporal and Sociocultural Transformations in the Aftermath of Eurozone's Collapse"
Mar. 1:	Ruth Allen Emory University	"Confronting Medusa on Engraved Roman Gemstones"
	Chad Córdoba Emory University	"Life in the Grotto: Montaigne and the Meaning of Posthumanism"
Apr. 5:	Lisa Lee Emory University	"In the Street with Thomas Hirschhorn"
	Didem Uca Emory University	"Coming to Terms with the German Past by Proxy: Transatlantic & Transgenerational Reckoning"

Seminar Format:

The seminars will be held on Monday afternoons over Zoom, from 4:15-6:15 pm. Papers (of about 20 pages) will be circulated in advance so that most of each two-hour session can be devoted to open discussion and interdisciplinary dialogue. In each hour, one of the authors provides a précis (10 minutes), which is followed by a brief (five-minute) formal response, usually from a different disciplinary perspective. The remainder of the hour is devoted to open discussion among all participants.
