

The Bill and Carol Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry Emory University

2023-2024 Interdisciplinary Research Seminar (CHIIRS)

GALACSI

Georgia Atlantic, Latin American, and Caribbean Studies Initiative

Moderator: Lia T. Bascomb, Associate Professor,
Department of Africana Studies, Georgia State University

We are a group of scholars in Georgia engaged in pedagogical and research collaborations focused on the history of the Atlantic World, Latin America, and the Caribbean. In addition to building an intellectual community, we are strengthening the institutional ties among university campuses across the state. Participating faculty are from nine universities (Emory University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia Southern University, Georgia State University, Morehouse College, Spelman College, University of North Georgia, University of Georgia, and the University of West Georgia) and we aim to support faculty and student development.

In 2018 we received funding and institutional support as an FCHI Interdisciplinary Research Seminar (CHIIRS) at the Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry at Emory University. GALACSI is co-sponsored by the Wilson Center for Humanities and Arts and the University of Georgia and the Humanities Research Center at Georgia State University.

This seminar will meet at The Fox Center for Humanistic Inquiry at Emory University, 1635 N. Decatur Rd, (across from Glenn Memorial Church) at 7:30pm on the following evenings during the 2023 fall semester: Tuesday, September 19, Monday, October 16, Tuesday, November 7; and Tuesday, December 5.

For more information, please contact Lia T. Bascomb at lbascob@gsu.edu.

We are grateful to The National Endowment for the Humanities for its support of this program. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in these seminars do not necessarily reflect those of the National Endowment for the Humanities.